Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)

(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

ATTACHMENT TO SUBPOENA

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to produce the documents and things in your possession, custody or control, as designated herein, for inspection at the offices of John B. Rottenborn, Esq., at Woods Rogers PLC, 123 East Main Street, 5th Floor, Charlottesville, VA 22902, within 14 days of service. There is a Protective Order in this action that permits you to designate documents as “confidential” or “highly confidential.” This subpoena, including each individual Request for Documents (collectively, the “Requests”), shall be read and interpreted to request only documents that are not covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine, and in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the definitions and instructions identified below.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. Nothing in the Requests or the subpoena to which they are attached should be construed to request documents protected by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine.
2. The singular of each word shall be construed to include its plural and vice-versa, the word “any” shall be construed to include “all” and vice-versa, and the words “and” as well as “or” shall be construed both conjunctively and disjunctively.
3. The present tense shall be construed to include the past tense and vice-versa.
4. The term “concerning” means “relating to,” “referring to,” “describing,” “evidencing” or “constituting.”
5. The terms “document” and “documents” means all items within the scope of Rules 26 and 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including but not limited to, all originals, non-identical copies and drafts of any electronically stored information (“ESI”), written, printed, handwritten, recorded digital, or graphic matter of any kind, however produced or reproduced, including but not limited to, any work-paper, correspondence, memorandum, note, research, checklist, opinion, minutes, inter-office or intra-office communications, e-mail or instant message, text message, report, chart, graph, summary, index, diary, desk or pocket calendar, notebook, any magnetic or other recording tape, computer data (including information, databases, spreadsheets, code, programs and applications stored in a computer, whether or not ever printed out or displayed), photograph, microfiche, microfilm, videotape, record or motion picture, and electronic, mechanical, or electrical record or representation of any kind (including tape, cassette, disc, magnetic card or recording, computers, servers under your control, personal digital assistant, blackberry, cell phones, zip drives, and floppy discs). “Document” shall also include the file folders in which said documents are maintained and any table of contents or index thereto; and copies of documents of which the originals have been destroyed pursuant to a document destruction policy or otherwise.

6. The terms “electronically stored information” and “ESI” are defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of “electronically stored information” in Rules 26 and 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

7. The terms “communication” and “communications” mean the transmittal of information in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries, or otherwise by any means, including in writing and electronically, and include any message, post, tweet, direct message, chat, or message on any social media platform.

8. The term “social media” means any forum, website, application, or other network on which persons can create, share, communicate concerning, or comment upon any information, or otherwise engage in social networking. Without limiting the foregoing in any manner, and by way of example only, the following are social media platforms: comment sections of websites, Facebook, Discord, Reddit, Imgur, Snapchat, Instagram, Google+, 4chan, 8chan, Twitter, Tumblr, and instant messaging programs such as Signal, WhatsApp, Messenger, Hangouts, or Skype.

9. “Fields” refers to James Alex Fields, Jr.

10. The term “Unite the Right Event” is defined as any event, rally, gathering, or meeting planned or attended by some or all named Defendants or others to take place in Charlottesville, Virginia on August 11 or 12, 2017, including the march to and rally at the Rotunda in the evening on August 11, 2017, and the planned rally at Emancipation Park in the morning on August 12, 2017.

11. The term “Car Attack” means the incident in which James Fields drove his car into a crowd of pedestrians on August 12, 2017.

12. The term “Legal Proceeding” means any action, suit, litigation, arbitration, proceeding (including any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or appellate proceeding), hearing, inquiry, examination, or investigation commenced, brought, conducted or heard by or before, or otherwise involving, any court or other Governmental Body or any arbitrator or arbitration panel, including Commonwealth v. James Alex Fields, Jr., Case Nos. CR-17-000296-01 to CR-17-000296-10 (Va. Cir. Ct.) and United States v. James Alex Fields Jr., Case No. 3:18-CR-00011 (W.D. Va.).

16. In producing documents, you are requested to produce the original of each document requested together with all non-identical copies and drafts of that document. If the original of any document cannot be located, a copy shall be provided in lieu thereof, and shall be legible and bound or stapled in the same manner as the original. In any circumstance in which an agreement is reached to allow the production of copies of documents rather than originals, you shall retain all of the original documents for inspection or copying throughout the pendency of this case, any appeal(s), and any related proceedings.

17. Any alteration of a responsive document, including any marginal notes, handwritten notes, underlining, date stamps, received stamps, endorsed or filed stamps, drafts, revisions, modifications, and other versions of a document, is a responsive document in its own right and must be produced.

18. Any reference to a person that is a business entity, organization, unincorporated association, or similar entity and is not otherwise defined includes that person’s predecessors (including any pre-existing person that at any time became part of that entity after merger or acquisition), successors, parents, divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, franchisors and franchisees; each other person, directly or indirectly owned or controlled by any of them; and each partnership or joint venture to which any of them is a party; and all present and former directors, officers, employees, agents, consultants, controlling shareholders (and any entity owned by any such controlling shareholder) and attorneys of any of them; and any other person acting for or on behalf of any of them.

19. Documents shall be produced either (a) as they are kept in the usual course of business (in which case they shall be produced in such fashion as to identify the department, branch or office in whose possession it was located and, where applicable, the natural person in whose possession it was found or the server or central file in which it was found, and the address of each document's custodian(s)), or (b) segregated as responsive to a specific Request enumerated in these Requests, with such specific Request identified. Documents attached to each other should not be separated.

20. If identical copies of a document are in the possession, custody or control of more than one natural person or other document custodian, a copy of that document shall be produced from each such natural person or other document custodian.

21. All communications, including but not limited to text messages, Facebook messages, tweets, and direct messages on Twitter, should be produced in a form that identifies the message, the sender, the recipient, and the date on which the message was sent.

22. If you timely object to any portion of a Request, definition or instruction, provide a response to the remaining portion.

23. If you are unable to produce a document that is responsive to a Request, so state and indicate whether the document ever existed or whether the document once existed but cannot be located. If any responsive document once was, but is no longer, in your possession, custody or control, state the whereabouts of such document when last in your possession, custody or control, state the date and manner of its disposition and identify its last known custodian. To the extent that any responsive document was lost or destroyed, produce any document that supports your assertion that the document was lost or destroyed, and provide the date when each such document was lost or destroyed.

24. Unless otherwise stated, the time period to which these Requests refer is from January 1, 2015 to the present. If any document is undated and the date of its preparation cannot be determined, the document shall be produced if otherwise responsive to any of the Requests.

25. These Requests are continuing and require supplemental responses in accordance with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e).

D. If, in responding to any of the following Requests, you encounter any ambiguity or confusion in construing either a Request or a Definition or Instruction relevant to a Request, set forth the matter deemed ambiguous, select a reasonable interpretation that you believe resolves the ambiguity, respond to the Request using that interpretation, and explain with particularity the construction or interpretation selected by you in responding to the Interrogatory.

E. In the event any document or information is withheld on the basis of the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, or any other right to non-disclosure on any other basis, furnish a list identifying the documents, communications, or information for which the protection is claimed together with the following (if applicable): the type of document or communication; the date or dates of the document or communication; the name, position and address of each person who participated in the document or communication, to whom the document or communication was addressed, or to whom the document or communication or the contents thereof have been communicated by any means; the general subject matter of the document, communication, or information; the specific basis for nonproduction or non-disclosure; and a description that you contend is adequate to support your contention that the document, communication, or information may be withheld from production and/or disclosure. If a document or communication is withheld on the ground of attorney work product, also specify whether the document or communication was prepared in anticipation of litigation and, if so, identify the anticipated litigation(s) upon which the assertion is based.

F. If You object to production in response to a specific request, You shall state with particularity the basis for all objections with respect to such request. You should respond to all portions of that request that do not fall within the scope of Your objection. If You object to a Request on the ground that it is overly broad, provide such documents that are within the scope of production that You believe is appropriate. If You object to a Request on the ground that to provide responsive documents would constitute an undue burden, provide such responsive documents as You believe can be supplied without undertaking an undue burden.

G. Whether or not You object, You must preserve all Documents and Communications relevant to the lawsuit, including all Documents and Communications responsive to these Requests. You must also preserve all hardware, software and log files related to databases; servers; archives; backup or recovery disks, files and servers; networks or computer systems including legacy systems; magnetic, optical or other storage media, including hard drives and other storage media; laptops; personal computers; personal digital assistants; handheld wireless devices; mobile telephones; paging devices; and audio systems, including iPods. You must take every reasonable step to preserve this information until the final resolution of this matter. This includes, but is not limited to, discontinuing all data destruction and backup recycling policies; preserving and not disposing relevant hardware unless an exact replica of the file is made; preserving and not destroying passwords; encryption and accompanying decryption keys; network access codes, including login names; decompression or reconstruction software; maintaining all other pertinent information and tools needed to access, review, and reconstruct all requested or potentially relevant electronically stored information and data. Where any alterations or deletions of any of the documents and data requested by the subpoena have been made since August 11, 2017, You should provide a log detailing any changes and deletions, the individual who made those changes and deletions, and the purpose for which the changes and deletions were made.

H. Produce all responsive documents in Your possession, custody, or control, regardless of whether such documents are possessed directly by You or persons under Your control, including Your agents, employees, representatives, or attorneys, or their agents, employees, or representatives. To the extent that you do not have copies of communications made or received by you that are responsive to these requests, you must provide the consent necessary under the Stored Communications Act, see 18 U.S.C. § 2702(b)(3), to permit the providers of electronic communication services and remote computing services, see 18 U.S.C. § 2702(a)(1)-(2), to produce the documents.

I. Produce each responsive document in its entirety including with all attachments or other matters affixed thereto.

J. Each Document produced in response to these Requests shall be produced in accordance with the specifications described in Exhibit A attached hereto, or as agreed by the parties or ordered by the Court.

K. References to any natural person shall be deemed to include that natural person's agents, servants, representatives, current and former employees, and successors.

L. References to any non-natural person (e.g., corporation, partnership, entity, membership organizations, etc.) shall be deemed to include that non-natural person's predecessors, successors, divisions, subsidiaries, parents, assigns, partners, members, and affiliates, foreign or domestic, each other person directly or indirectly, wholly or in part, owned by, controlled by, or associated with them, and any others acting or purporting to act on their behalf for any reason, and the present and former officers, directors, partners, consultants, representatives, servants, employees, assigns, attorneys, and agents of any of them.

M. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.

N. The use of the past tense includes the present tense and vice versa, as necessary to bring within the scope of each request all responses that might otherwise be considered outside its scope. Whenever a term is used herein in the present, past, future, subjunctive, or other tense, voice, or mood, it shall also be construed to include all other tenses, voices, or moods.

O. The terms "and" and "or" should be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope.

P. The word "all" means "any and all"; the word "any" means "any and all."

Q. The term "including" means "including, without limitation."

R. The masculine includes the feminine and neutral genders.

S. Unless otherwise specified, the time period to which these Requests refer is from January 1, 2015 to the present. If any document is undated and the date of its preparation cannot be determined, the document shall be produced if otherwise responsive to any of the Requests.

Counsel for Plaintiffs

EXHIBIT A

1. PRODUCTION FORMAT

- a) To avoid the production of more than one copy of a unique item, use industry standard MD5 or SHA-1 hash values to de-duplicate all files identified for production. Loose e-files will not be compared to email attachments for de-duplication purposes. Hard copy documents containing handwritten notes will not be considered as duplicative of any other document.
- b) Where documents with attachments are produced, they will be attached in the same manner as included in the original file. Where documents are produced and all attachments thereto are not included, identify the missing attachments by means of a “place holder” file, and explain the reason for their non-production. Documents that are segregated or separated from other documents, whether by inclusion of binders, files, dividers, tabs, clips or any other method, will be produced in a manner that reflects these divisions. If any portion of a document is responsive, the entire document should be submitted. Do not redact any non-privileged content from any document absent a separate agreement.
- c) Productions should be delivered on an external hard drive, CD, DVD, or via FTP (or other secure online transfer). If a delivery is too large to fit on a single DVD, the production should be delivered on an external hard drive or via FTP upon agreement with Defendants.
- d) Documents shall be produced as Bates-stamped tagged image file format (“TIFF”) images accompanied by an image load file, a data load file with fielded metadata, document-level extracted text for ESI, and optical character recognition (“OCR”) text for scanned hard copy documents and ESI that does not contain extractable text. Detailed requirements, including files to be delivered in native format, are below.
- e) TIFF Image Requirements
 - a. TIFF images will be produced in black and white, 300x300 dpi Group IV single-page format and should be consecutively Bates-stamped.
 - b. Images will include the following content where present:
 - i. For word processing files (e.g., Microsoft Word): Comments, “tracked changes,” and any similar in-line editing or hidden content.
 - ii. For presentation files (e.g., Microsoft PowerPoint): Speaker notes, comments, and all other hidden content.
 - iii. For spreadsheet files (e.g., Microsoft Excel): Hidden columns, rows, and sheets, comments, “tracked changes,” and any similar in-line editing or hidden content.
- f) Native Production Requirements

- a. Spreadsheet files (e.g., Microsoft Excel and .Csv files) and presentation files (e.g. Microsoft PowerPoint) should be provided in native format.
 - i. In lieu of a full TIFF image version of each native file, a single placeholder image bearing the relevant bates number and confidentiality designation should be produced.
 - ii. When redaction is necessary, a redacted full TIFF version may be produced provided that the document is manually formatted for optimal printing. If the file requiring redaction is not reasonably useable in TIFF format, the parties will meet-and-confer to determine a suitable production format.
 - iii. If redactions within a native file are necessary, the parties will meet-and-confer prior to productions and provide a means to identify such documents in the production.
- b. Media files (e.g., .mp3, .wmv, etc.) will be produced in native format.
- c. The parties will meet-and-confer to discuss a suitable production format for any proprietary or non-standard file types that require special software or technical knowledge for review.
- d. The parties will meet-and-confer to discuss a suitable production format for any databases or database reports.
- e. Any files that cannot be accurately rendered in a reviewable TIFF format should be produced in native format.
- f. Defendants reserve the right to request native or color copies of any documents that cannot be accurately reviewed in black and white TIFF format. Reasonable requests for native or color documents should not be refused.
- g) Load File Requirements
 - a. A Concordance compatible data load file should be provided with each production volume and contain a header row listing all of the metadata fields included in the production volume.
 - b. Image load files should be produced in Concordance/Opticon compatible format.
- h) Extracted Text/OCR Requirements
 - a. Electronically extracted text should be provided for documents collected from electronic sources. Text generated via OCR should be provided for all documents that do not contain electronically extractable text (e.g., non-searchable PDF files and JPG images) and for redacted and hard copy documents. Do not to degrade the searchability of document text as part of the document production process.

- b. Document text should be provided as separate, document-level text files and not be embedded in the metadata load file.
 - c. Text files should be named according to the beginning bates number of the document to which they correspond.
 - d. If a document is provided in native format, the text file should contain the extracted text of the native file.
 - e. A path to each extracted text file on the delivery media should be included in a load file field, or in a separate cross-reference file.
- i) Produce all metadata fields listed in Appendix 1 if available.
